

WHO DOESN'T LIKE TO GO SHOPPING? ...TO BUY IN SPANISH

Who doesn't like to go shopping? And more when we are on vacation in a different country. For those specific situations, do not forget to have a battery of typical questions in mind. And not only those that you can ask as a buyer, but also those the seller can ask you, because you will have to understand them very well to answer them properly. Here are some of the most useful.

Match up the questions and answer:

¿Cuánto cuesta este perfume?
How much is this perfume?

Con tarjeta
By credit card.

¿Tienen camisetas de la talla XL?
Have you got T-shirts in an XL size?

Me quedan un poco grandes.
They are a bit big on me.

¿Dónde están los probadores?
Where are the fitting rooms?

No, lo siento.
No, I am sorry.

¿Va a pagar en efectivo o con tarjeta?
Are you buying in cash or by credit cash?

Vale 45 E.
It costs 45 E.

¿Cómo le quedan los pantalones?
How are the pants?

Al fondo, a la derecha
Down there on the left.

Spanish in action

