

KNOW THE TYPES OF HOUSING IN SPANISH

Nowadays there are many more words to name and be more specific when describing living spaces. House and apartment are not enough, so it would be convenient to expand the vocabulary and with it the understanding of a modern world that is much more diverse in many ways, including the spaces we inhabit.

Say whether these homes are for just one family or are collective: loft, villa, bungalow, palacio, ático, piso, apartamento, duplex, cabaña.
