

YOU ARE LIKE A COW... WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

In all languages there are proverbs, expressions and set phrases. There are not always equivalent phrases in languages, but what is certain is that many coincide in using analogies with animals. Why with the animals? Is it because the poor cannot defend themselves? Or maybe it's because they show their personality traits more openly than humans, without any filter.

Match up these expressions with their definitions:

Estar como una vaca

Estar como una cabra

Ser un gallina

Ser un burro

Estar como un toro

Significa estar fuerte

It means to be strong

Significa ser tonto

It means to be dumb

Significa estar gordo o gorda

It means to be fat

Significa estar loco o loca

It means to be crazy or crazy

Significa ser un cobarde

It means to be a coward

Spanish in action

