

ARE YOU GOING TO TRAVEL? LEARN SOME PROPER SPANISH VOCABULARY

The functional and even technical vocabulary at the airport does not vary between Hispanic countries, it is an interesting phenomenon similar to traffic signs.

It is like a common language. Learning it will always be very useful because it is the beginning of a vacation, a good deal, or a meeting with friends or family.

Complete the sentences with the words below: con escalas, cacheó, embarcar, abróchense, despega. (with stopovers, pat down, board, buckle up, take off)

Cuando pasé por el arco, este pitó y el policía me _____.

Nuestro avión aterriza en la pista a las 7h y _____ a las 16h.

Tenemos un vuelo de Barcelona a Moscú _____ en París y Berlín.

No te olvides de que debemos _____ por la puerta 32.

Señores pasajeros, _____ los cinturones porque estamos a punto de despegar.

Spanish in action

