

HOW DO YOU EXPRESS WHAT YOU LIKE IN SPANISH

The like expression in Spanish is very different from English. It is the basis for creating sentences with other verbs expressed in a similar way. Don't get tired of practicing it.

Complete the sentences with the following: worker, sleepyheads, lazy, strong, clean:

1. A Pedro le encanta estar en la oficina, él es muy _____.
Pedro loves being in the office, he is very hard-working.

2. A nosotros nos encanta echarnos la siesta, somos un poco _____.
We love having a nap, we are real sleepyheads.

3. A María y a mí nos gusta hacer deporte, por eso estamos _____.
María and I love doing sport, that is why we are so strong.

4. A mi amigo Lucas le gusta ducharse todos los días, es un chico muy _____.
My friend Lucas likes to shower every day, he is a very clean boy.

5. A mi tío no le gusta hacer nada, pienso que es bastante _____.
My uncle does not like doing anything, I think he is quite lazy.

Spanish in action

