

TRANSPORTATION . LET'S PRACTICE

Sometimes, due to certain particles of the language such as without, no, not always, and many more, we can interpret wrong ideas.

So checking what we have understood will always be useful to practice comprehension, whether oral or written.

Say if the following are true (true) or lie (false):

1. Ir en coche es más rápido que ir a pie. _____
Going by car is faster than going on foot.
2. El tren es menos contaminante que la bicicleta. _____
Trains cause less pollution than bicycles.
3. El autobús es más peligroso que la moto. _____
Buses are more dangerous than motorcycles.
4. Ir a caballo es más cómodo que ir en coche. _____
Riding a horse is more comfortable than going by car.
5. Viajar en barco es más lento que viajar en avión. _____
Traveling by boat is slower than going by plane.

Spanish in action

