

TALKING ABOUT THE CITY. BEWARE OF TRANSLATIONS

Order the words to make correct sentences. You can use translation to get oriented. However, remember translations are not one to one. As an example, what in English could be two words to form a verb in Spanish could be just one; or in English you could omit articles that you can not when you use Spanish, etc.

So please have the translation just as a reference.

Ciudad / and / muchos / hay / restaurantes / mi
There are lots of restaurants in my city.

Es / ciudad / bonita / mi / muy
My city is very beautiful.

Hay / en / casco / ciudad / antiguo / mi / no / ningún
There is no old quarter in my city.

Casa / de / mi / metro / cerca / está / de / parada / una
My house is near a subway station.

Ciudad / en / bastantes / hay / mi / cine
There are quite a few theaters in my city.

Spanish in action

