

HOUSE VOCABULARY IN SPANISH

Practicing vocabulary about the house will always be useful because. It is enough to sit in your living room or on your bed, or even in the bathroom and begin to describe what you see around you.

Here are some sentences to start this exercise of describing your environment. Do it every day.

Complete these sentences using: oscuro, clásica, exterior, amueblado céntrico.

1. Mi piso tiene todos los muebles, es decir, que está_____.
My apartment has all the furniture, it is furnished.

2. Mi apartamento no tiene muchas ventanas y casi no entra luz, es un poco_____
My apartment has few windows and does not get much light, it is rather dark.

3. Mi casa está cerca de la plaza principal de la ciudad, es muy_____
My house is near the main square in the city, it is very central.

4. El piso de María tiene muchas ventanas que dan a la calle, es un piso_____
María's apartment has lots of windows that look out on the street.

5. La casa de Juan tiene muebles antiguos y elegantes, la decoración es_____
Juan's house has elegant old furniture, the decoration is classical.

Spanish in action

